Goizueta Business Library

Creating Bridges to Knowledge

Online Courses, Certifications & Self-Paced Learning

Emory licenses a variety of resources to build your skills in data visualization, AI, Tableau, R, team building, leadership, and more.

Tutorials & Training

O'Reilly

Courses and certificates focused on developing or refreshing business skills and software applications. Read these tips to take full advantage of O'Reilly.

Emory Center for Digital Scholarship (ECDS)

ECDS has created open-access, on-demand tutorials and courses for individual study. Includes programming languages, web & design, AI, data & network analysis, and more.

Earn Certificates Across Skills & Competencies

O'Reilly

Courses and certificates focused on developing or refreshing business skills and software applications. Read these tips to take full advantage of O'Reilly.

Coursera

Earn certificates for free from the Emory's catalog of courses.

Financial Platform Training Certifications

The Goizueta Business Library licenses several Wall Street financial platforms: Bloomberg, LSEG Workspace, FactSet, and Pitchbook. Each offers various options for learning to use the platform, understanding more about topics (e.g. equities, fixed income) and most include courses for which you can earn certificates. Read this blog for more information.

Bloomberg

Remote access to Bloomberg Market Concepts (BMC), Finance Fundamentals (BFF), and ESG Certification is available.

FactSet

FactSet offers five certificates including portfolio analysis, screening, and derivatives products.

LSEG Workspace

The Learning Centre includes certifications, on demand and live classes, and more.

Pitchbook

PitchBook 101 courses include recorded training workshops, tutorials, and documentation.

ASK a Librarian