

View this email in your browser

Artist & Influence interview event

Artist & Influence: An Oral History Interview with Noah Jemisin in conversation with Halima Taha

Friday, November 7, 2025 6:30–8 p.m.
Emory Performing Arts Studio
1804 North Decatur Rd. NE
Atlanta, GA 30322

Join us this Friday for the Artist & Influence program with Southern-born, Brooklyn-based artist Noah Jemisin as he is interviewed by Halima Taha, artistic director of the Hammonds House Museum in Atlanta. You can be a witness to the historical record as this interview will be recorded and added to the Billops-Hatch Archive in the Stuart A. Rose Library.

Rose Library has revived the Artist & Influence oral history interviews that Camille Billops and James Hatch conducted, which created a tremendous resource of conversations with African American artists, filmmakers, writers, and art historians. This newest interview to be added to the archive is a can't miss event, open to the public at no charge, so reserve your seat now.

Reserve your seat

Read more about the event

Subscribe to Keywords

Previous editions

Library news

Make a gift

libraries.emory.edu

Copyright © 2025 Emory Libraries, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

